Talking Points

What keeps you from sharing the εὐαγγέλιον— the Good News of the Gospel? How does the church sometimes find itself guilty of ‘the good people’ getting in the way of the Gospel?

We have a REALLY REALLY BIG problem. The Bible calls it SIN—falling short of God’s glory. We also call it brokenness. But Christ is in the business of making broken things beautiful! Do you spend more time thinking about your (and the world’s) brokenness or God’s amazing grace?

God’s pursuing, redeeming, securing grace seems to demand some kind of response from us. So let’s respond to Him! What do you say?
