Talking Points

Does it sometimes seem that God's glory and your good are at odds with one another? Why might we see it that way?

How many of us have been through storms, struggles, trials, times where you didn't think you could go on... maybe even started to question God and your faith in Him? (Anyone who has walked with Him for any length of time). Now answer these questions:

How did you get through those times?

How did they strengthen you?

What did you learn about yourself? About God?

How can you better prepare for the next trying-time?
