Talking Points

Talking Point 1: What is the reasonable response to the life touched by the gospel?

Talking Point 2: James 5:16 says, “Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed.” 1 John 1:7–9 makes a similar point. Jesus certainly promoted authenticity in dealing with faith struggles and admonished the ‘religious’ who put on pretense.

So why do we struggle so to be open and honest about our struggles? About the lies we have come to believe?

How can we grow as a place of grace and, in inviting more transparency, see more freedom found?

Talking Point 3: If membership in the body is defined biblically as using your spiritual gifting in the faith family He has put you in, how are you connected to the body of Christ?
